Flaster Greenberg Formalizes Higher Education Practice

Press Release

November 26, 2014
Cherry Hill, NJ

Flaster Greenberg PC, a full-service commercial law firm with six office locations across NJ, PA, DE and NY, announced it is expanding its higher education practice to accommodate the firm's growing client base among colleges and universities in the region.

For the past decade, Flaster Greenberg has provided legal services to public and private colleges and universities including two-year and four-year institutions, independent and faith-based schools, teaching hospitals, medical research organizations, and other educational-related entities. Flaster Greenberg's education experience includes corporate law, joint ventures, governance, real estate, tax, intellectual property, litigation, environmental, financing, labor and employment, employee benefits, health, regulatory and compliance work.

The Higher Education Group is comprised of Flaster Greenberg attorneys who have decades of experience in assisting educational institutions, academics and organizations, as well as companies in the education industry. Attorneys who make up the firm's higher education practice work with a variety of constituencies, from boards, presidents and provosts to general counsel, senior administrators, faculty and outside vendors.

Individually and collectively, Flaster Greenberg attorneys have been recognized for excellence by clients, peers in the legal community, business and industry groups and by numerous civic, cultural and nonprofit organizations. The National Law Journal recently selected Flaster Greenberg as one of only 20 law firms nationwide on its 'Midsize Hot List,' recognizing outstanding firms in the 50 to 150 lawyer range "that in no way are stuck in the shadows cast by giant competitors" and that have demonstrated creative, innovative strategies to stay competitive.
