Industry Leaders Assess Our Region's Economy at April 25th Rutgers Quarterly Business Outlook

Press Release

April 13, 2012
Cherry Hill, NJ

Several of South Jersey's leaders in the residential real estate and financial industries will join together at the Rutgers-Camden Campus on April 25th to assess the region's business economy. The panel will consist of three experts in economy, banking and residential real estate, who will discuss current and six-month outlooks in their respective fields.

Flaster Greenberg, together with the Chamber of the Commerce of Southern New Jersey, has been a sponsor of the Quarterly Business Outlook for the past 13 years. The Program continues to attract hundreds of business leaders and professional, who seek valuable insight from the reputable panelists and their intuitive evaluations.

The Quarterly Business Outlook will begin at 7:45 a.m. on Wednesday, April 25th and will be moderated by Jaishankar Ganesh, Dean of Rutgers School of Business- Camden. The introduction will be presented by Frank H. Wisniewski, Chair of the Real Estate and Land Use Department at Flaster Greenberg. April's panelists include: Bruce Paparone, President, Bruce Paparone Inc.; David Hanrahan, President and CEO, Capital Bank of New Jersey; and Joel Naroff, President, Naroff Economic Advisors.

Register by April 24th by contacting the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey at 856.424.7776, or by registering online at https://www.chambersnj.com. The event will be held in the Campus Center at Rutgers-Camden, located on Third Street, between Cooper Street and the Benjamin Franklin Bridge. Free and accessible parking will be available. The breakfast event is free of charge and open to the public; however, advance registration is strongly recommended.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Frank Wisniewski