Is wondering about the new overtime rules got you working overtime?

Attend our panel discussion and learn how the new Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) rules affect who is considered an exempt vs. non-exempt employee. Get answers on what's needed to address the new rules and ensure your business is in compliance, how quickly you'll need to act, and what to consider when adjusting wages, work schedules, and employee duties.

Primepoint's panel will provide insight into the new rules from both the legal and human resources perspectives, as well as provide an understanding of the technology that can help your business comply.
