FG Raises Money to Benefit the American Heart Association's Go Red for Women Movement

Press Release

February 17, 2015
Cherry Hill, NJ

On Friday, February 6, 2015 Flaster Greenberg (FG) participated in a nationwide 'Wear Red Day' in an effort to support the American Heart Association's Go Red for Women movement. Each employee interested in participating was given a 'Go Red Dress' lapel pin for their contribution. FG employees raised over $450 for the cause, which will be donated to the American Heart Association.

The American Heart Association's Go Red for Women movement is a program that builds awareness, urges women to take action to reduce their risk of heart disease and raises necessary funds for vital research and education. According to the American Heart Association, before they introduced the Go Red campaign, people were largely unaware of the impact that heart disease has on the female population in the United States.
