FLASTER GREENBERG
Attorneys at Law | A Professional Corporation

Medical Staff Bylaws: Impact of Recent Regulatory Changes and Best Practices

September 13, 2017
Strafford

Please click here for more information or to register.

This CLE webinar will prepare healthcare counsel to advise and guide healthcare providers, medical staffs and hospitals working towards medical staff bylaws compliance with the Joint Commission standards, Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) Conditions of Participation, the National Practitioner Data Bank (NPDB) standards, and other applicable federal and state laws.

Speakers:

- Alma L. Saravia, Shareholder, Flaster Greenberg PC
- Richard D. Barton, Partner, Procopio Cory Hargreaves & Savitch
- Adrienne E. Marting, Partner, Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough
- Elizabeth A. (Libby) Snelson, President, Legal Counsel for the Medical Staff

Date & Time:

Wednesday, September 13, 2017
1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m. Eastern

Who should attend:

- Attorneys
- Medical Staff
- Healthcare Providers
- Hospital Administrators

Agenda:

- CMS/Joint Commission medical staff standards
- New National Practitioner Guidebook impact on bylaw
- Best practices

Credits

This program has been approved for 1.80 NJ CLE credits, but is also approved in other states. Please see the registration link for a breakdown by state.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Alma Saravia