Zuckerman to Moderate CCSNJ's "State Of" Regional Economic Perspective Event

Press Release

March 5, 2012
Cherry Hill, NJ

Alan Zuckerman, shareholder in the Taxation Practice Group at Flaster Greenberg PC, has been selected by the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey (CCSNJ) to moderate a panel of the region's leading economic developers at the "State of" Regional Economic Perspective event. This event is one of four programs in a series that provides an in-depth look into specific industries in Southern New Jersey.

The "State of" Regional Economic Perspective event will provide attendees with an update on what is being done to bolster the business community throughout Southern New Jersey. Zuckerman will moderate a panel of economic development directors from the southern counties of New Jersey who will provide members with an update on business attraction, retention and expansion efforts in their respective counties.

Zuckerman is a tax attorney as well as a Certified Public Accountant. His practice focuses on federal and state taxation; business and corporate transactions; mergers and acquisitions involving public and private companies; estate planning and administration; and health care law.

The program will take place on Friday, March 30, 2012 at 8:00 a.m. at The Mansion in Voorhees, New Jersey. For more information on this event, or to register, please click here.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Alan Zuckerman