IT Director Jeffrey McShane Appointed to Co-City Representative for the Philadelphia Chapter of ILTA

Press Release

March 21, 2013
Philadelphia, PA

Jeffrey D. McShane, Information Technology Director at Flaster Greenberg PC, has been selected by the International Legal Technology Association (ILTA) to serve as Co-City Representative for their Philadelphia chapter. In this role, McShane will be responsible for assisting the regional vice president in building and sustaining an active local community, providing members with a variety of opportunities to participate in educational and networking events.

McShane directs, leads and oversees implementation of the firm's technology systems. In addition to enterprise-wide strategic information technology planning and execution, he manages the Information Technology Department, which provides the firm with technical assistance in the areas of network operations, end-user support, telecommunications, training and practice support.

McShane graduated magna cum laude from Peirce College, with a B.S. in Information Technology. Prior to joining Flaster Greenberg, he managed technology groups for Montgomery, McCracken, Walker and Rhoads, LLP, among other companies. He is also a member of the Association of Legal Administrators.

For over three decades, ILTA has led the way in sharing knowledge and experience for those faced with challenges in their firms and legal departments. ILTA members come from firms of all sizes and all areas of practice, all sharing a common need to have access to the latest information about products and support services that impact the legal profession.
