Bernard Devieux Accepted Into ACG University Program

Press Release

January 31, 2018

Flaster Greenberg associate Bernard C. Devieux was selected as one of 40 up-and-coming M&A dealmakers to be accepted into the ACG University program, run by the local Philadelphia chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth. ACGU provides a seven-week in-depth education program paired with social and networking events for young M&A professionals and the broader ACG community.

Bernard is an associate in the firm's Business and Corporate Law Department, where he advises clients in mergers and acquisitions, securities, corporate governance, private equity, venture capital and general corporate matters. He is also a member of the Firm's Crowdfunding practice group. Devieux earned his J.D. cum laude from Villanova University School of Law in 2011. Prior to joining the firm, he was an associate at an international corporate law firm and a national corporate governance boutique. Most recently, Bernard was named to the Top Attorney List for Securities by SJ Magazine in 2017.

The Philadelphia Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) is the leading network for middle market M&A professionals focused on facilitating relationships valuable in sourcing and successfully completing transactions, educating dealmakers on trends and best practices and promoting awareness of Philadelphia's vibrant dealmaking community. Founded in 1954, the Association for Corporate Growth has chapters worldwide representing 14,500 members. ACG serves 90,000 investors, executives, lenders and advisers to growing middle-market companies. ACG's mission is to drive middle-market growth.
