

It's Not Personal; It's Just Business: Business Interruption Insurance for In-house Counsel

November 8, 2022

Association of Corporate Counsel Greater Philadelphia

This session will present an overview of business interruption insurance. Using Covid-19 as a backdrop, the presenters will discuss the essential elements of a business interruption insurance claim. Key legal concepts will be highlighted, including the historical meaning of the operative policy language, the applicable burdens of proof, the selection of an appropriate dispute resolution forum and current case trends. Attendees will be offered a set of best practices to be employed when disaster strikes and business is interrupted.
