
Employee Relations & Union Awareness Live Webcast

October 10, 2013
Knowledge Congress

For more information on this event, including registration, click here.

Unions have been on the public's radar over the last couple of years with high profile events like the attempted Wisconsin collective bargaining recall and the Hostess Baker Bankruptcy, whether you agree or disagree with them, unions are here to stay and you need to know how to deal with them.

The Knowledge Group is assembling a panel of distinguished thought leaders and practitioners to provide an in-depth discussion of the significant topics in the mix including:

- Collective Bargaining Issues
- Understanding how a Union Organizing Campaign Works: Elements, Process and Current Strategies
- Long Term Planning – How to Avoid Being Surprised By a Business Interruption
- Compliance with Labor and Employment Law
- Best Practices in Implementing and Maintaining Employee Relations Program
- Identifying and Avoiding Potential Pitfalls and Penalties
- Regulatory Updates

Join this live webcast and understand the most important aspects of employee relations, union awareness and union organizing. Speaker's presentation will be aired in a LIVE two-hour Webcast. They will also be available to answer your questions during the Q&A session.
