
Office Space News and Hot Topics: What to Look for on the Horizon

April 29, 2015

Join us on April 29th for our next Real Estate Breakfast Event, during which we will explore the latest trends in commercial office space in both the city and suburbs. Our presenters will share their insights on key developments in this critical industry segment, including how companies are redesigning their office space to maximize productivity and efficiencies.

Speakers:

- Jeffrey E. Mack, Executive Managing Director, Newmark Knight Frank Smith Mack

Jeff has been a significant member of the commercial brokerage community in Philadelphia since 1979. He co-founded the former Smith Mack operation in 1984 and has continued to lease and sell more suburban office space than any other individual agent. He served as past chairman of the Philadelphia Board of Realtors, commercial and industrial division.

- Craig J. Scheuerle, Executive Managing Director, Newmark Grubb Knight Frank

Craig began his real estate career as an office leasing specialist in the brokerage division of Jackson-Cross Company in 1987. After 10 years he joined Newmark Grubb Knight Frank and specialized in tenant representation. He has been acknowledged as a national top producer for the company for 11 of the past 15 years and continues to excel at Newmark Grubb Knight Frank.
