Philadelphia LGBTQ Bar Association

Labor & Employment Shareholder Susie Cirilli was recently quoted in a news release issued by the Philadelphia LGBTQ Bar Association congratulating Bar Member Rue Landau on her primary election victory to be Philadelphia's first openly LGBTQ+ city councilperson.

"It is crucial for LGBTQ+ women to be at the table where decisions are being made. This primary win sends a message to law students, young female LGBTQ+ attorneys, and employers in the city, that LGBTQ+ women are making the moves to be in positions with power and influence," said Susie Cirilli, shareholder at Flaster/Greenberg P.C. and member of the Philadelphia LGBTQ Bar Association.
