

Stanger Appointed to the Board of the Eastern Pennsylvania/Delaware Regional Office of the Anti-Defamation League

Press Release

February 21, 2012

Cherry Hill, NJ

Doug Stanger, Shareholder at Flaster Greenberg, was recently appointed to be a member of the board of the Eastern Pennsylvania/Delaware Regional Office of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), which also now serves southern New Jersey. He will also be chairing the Atlantic/Cape May County Steering Committee. In this role, Mr. Stanger will be responsible for spearheading and organizing activities and events in the southern New Jersey area in order to ensure justice and fair treatment to all citizens alike.

The ADL is one of the nation's premier civil rights/human relations agencies fighting anti-semitism and all forms of bigotry, defending democratic ideals and protecting civil rights for all. Most recently, the ADL's Regional office based in Philadelphia assumed responsibility for serving Southern New Jersey, including Burlington, Camden, Gloucester, Salem, Cumberland, Atlantic and Cape May counties.
