Press Release

November 19, 2015

Cherry Hill, NJ

On Thursday, November 12th, the Mental Health Association of Southwestern New Jersey honored J. Philip Kirchner, shareholder at Flaster Greenberg PC, at a Toast and Roast cocktail event in recognition of his many years of service to the organization. Toasts and mild yet entertaining “roasts” were offered up by Matt Montenero of Wells Fargo Advisors, Jeff Brenner of Maragell Corporate Investigators, Anthony Iannone of Anthony’s Restaurant, and Brian DiLuigi of Brown & Brown Insurance, among others. The event was emceed by Peter Spirgel, Managing Shareholder at Flaster Greenberg.

Phil served on the MHASWNJ Board of Directors from 2006 – 2015, held the positions of president and first vice president, and chaired three committees while serving on a total of six, including the Executive, Finance, Personnel, Governance, Fund Development, and Board of Development committees. During his tenure with the MHASWNJ, Phil helped raise more than $100,000 for programs and services and was instrumental in assisting the MHASWNJ with the sale of their Camden property and subsequent purchase of their current location in Haddon Heights.

The event was held at Woodcrest Country Club. All proceeds from the event benefited the MHASWNJ.
