

CHAMBERS & PARTNERS USA

AMERICA'S LEADING LAWYERS FOR BUSINESS

2010

METROPOLITAN

PHILADELPHIA

RANKINGS

copyrights and trade secrets. Clients include Johnson & Johnson, Microsoft and Dupont.
Sources Say: "The attorneys are good communicators and excellent businesspeople; everything is done to the highest standard."

Band 2

Caesar, Rivise, Bernstein,

Cohen & Pokotilow Ltd

THE FIRM: This Philadelphia-based firm specializes in IP, computer and IT law. It handles all aspects of IP and has a particularly good reputation for representing generic drug manufacturers in patent litigation. The firm has 26 attorneys in total.

Sources Say: "This firm has a high level of expertise and a high level of civility. It has a great reputation."

Dechert LLP

THE FIRM: This firm handles all aspects of intellectual property law. The Philadelphia team is perhaps best known for IP litigation. Its stellar client list includes Apple, The Bank of New York Mellon and Pfizer.
Sources Say: "It is responsive and focused on real-world solutions."

Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP

THE FIRM: This firm has experience in the full range of IP issues and strength across a number of industries, including life sciences, mechanics, electronics and the computer industry. The cross-disciplinary IP litigation team has been particularly active this year. Clients include Amazon.com, Avantext and Yale University.

Panitch Schwarze Bellisario & Nadel LLP

THE FIRM: This firm was founded in 2008 by a group of lawyers from Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld. It has 20 lawyers and advisers specializing in IP law and handles the full range of contentious and noncontentious issues

Reed Smith LLP

THE FIRM: This firm has IP teams across the USA, UK, Germany and France. The Pennsylvania IP team is divided between The firm's Philadelphia and Pittsburgh offices. The Pennsylvania team has experience in all areas of IP law, including litigation, prosecution, counseling and transactions.

Band 4

Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP

THE FIRM: This firm has greatly strengthened its Pennsylvania IP group with the addition of three partners from Woodcock Washburn. It is now among the state's strongest patent litigation teams for life sciences clients.

Eckert Seamans Cherin & Mellott, LLC

THE FIRM: This firm's Pennsylvania IP team is based in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. The group was significantly strengthened in 2008 with the arrival of Roberta Jacobs—Meadway and Jay Meadway from Ballard Spahr. It handles the full range of IP issues for clients in a range of sectors, including retail, biotech, technology transfer and specialty food products.
Sources Say: "In terms of expertise, this firm has the whole deck of cards — it provides excellent representation."

Flaster Greenberg PC

THE FIRM: This firm has six offices across Philadelphia, New Jersey and Delaware. The firm started life as a tax boutique but has now extended into other areas. It has had particular success in IP, where it has grown a client base of corporate, institutional and individual entities, including Primepoint, Deb Shops and the University of Pennsylvania.

Sources Say: "This firm has talented lawyers with 'big-firm training' who work on a cost-effective basis."

INTELLECTUAL

