

Suretyship

Surety is a very specialized and technical area of the law that involves both the written instruments associated with a project, and the project itself. Our construction department has the depth and breadth to approach challenges in the appropriate manner. The surety often makes critical decisions in terms of a project, and our counsel can be valuable not only in the midst of a crisis, but throughout a project.