

Business and Corporate Law Resource Center

---

At Flaster Greenberg, we strive to provide you with valuable resources that may benefit your organization. Below are helpful links for governmental websites and Flaster Greenberg tools. Although these resources are not substitutes for advice from the experienced and qualified professionals at Flaster Greenberg, they may help you more easily find information and answers to frequently asked questions and forms. Our attorneys have put together a list of links to websites containing important information and tools you can use.

To take advantage of our resources, click on the links below that will best meet your needs.

Federal Resources

Internal Revenue Service for forms and information related to federal tax issues.

New Jersey

New Jersey Division of Taxation for forms and information related to individual, corporate and business tax forms and fees.

Secretary of State links for businesses, including information on starting, growing, and financing your business, as well as licensing and permit information.

Business name lookup for registration and filing, public records and certifications services, and UCC information.

Pennsylvania

Department of Revenue for forms and information related to individual, corporate and business tax forms and fees.

Secretary of State links for businesses, including information on starting, growing, and financing your business, as well as licensing and permit information.

Business name lookup for registration and filing, public records and certifications services, and UCC information.

Delaware

Division of Revenue for forms and information related to individual, corporate and business tax forms and fees.

Continued

---

Department of State links for businesses, including information on starting, growing, and financing your business, as well as licensing and permit information.

Business name lookup for registration and filing, public records and certifications services, and UCC information.