Mitchell H. Kizner, a member of the Litigation and Environmental Law Practice Groups, represents clients in insurance, environmental and other commercial matters as part of his active litigation and commercial law practice. Having represented defendants in personal injury matters for more than 10 years prior to joining Flaster Greenberg, he also represents self-insured corporate defendants in such suits. He is certified by the New Jersey Supreme Court as a Certified Civil Trial Attorney and has also served as General Counsel to the firm since 2006.

A frequent author of environmental law articles published in periodicals such as the New Jersey Law Journal, his past articles have included "No Further Action Letter May Be Unreliable" and "New Site Remediation Reform Act and Public Notice Requirements to Enhance the Role of Municipalities in Environmental Remediation Process."

For the past five years, Mr. Kizner has served as moderator and lecturer at the Annual Review of New Jersey Environmental Law presented by the Institute for Continuing Legal Education. He has also been a frequent guest lecturer for bar associations and business organizations where he has presented seminars such as:

"Insurance Coverage Litigation"

"Recent Amendments to New Jersey Spill Compensation and Control Act"

"Natural Resource Damages"

He has also served as Solicitor to the Cumberland County Vocational Board of Education since 1995 and has been Special Environmental Counsel to the Borough of Woodbine since 1991.
