

PICPA Tax Con

November 10, 2020

Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Tax Con is the evolution of the PICPA's Conference on Pennsylvania Taxes and Multistate Tax Conference. This two-day virtual conference will cover all of the topics from those plus new topics, allowing you to plan your own CPE experience and choose from dozens of concurrent sessions.

- Federal, state, and local tax experts
- Sales and use tax in Pennsylvania
- Recent legislation related to the pandemic and its impact on individual and business taxation
- Representatives from the IRS, Pennsylvania DOR, and revenue departments of surrounding states and major cities

FG Speaker:

Jon Ellis, Shareholder, Flaster Greenberg

- Choice of domicile decisions
- Application of the closely held business exemption
- How the inheritance tax is applied towards spousal trusts

<https://www.picpa.org/attend-cpe-events/conferences>

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Jonathan Ellis