
Hot Topics Impacting New Jersey's Building Industry Right Now: Cannabis and COVID

April 13, 2021

New Jersey Builders Association

Join Adam Gersh, a labor and employment attorney and shareholder at Flaster Greenberg, and other NJBA's Master Sponsors for a one-stop shop on two of the most pressing issues facing New Jersey employers today: Cannabis and COVID.

New Jersey has faced numerous challenges in the past year, and with major policy changes in response to the pandemic coupled with the historic marijuana reform, you do not want to miss this program! Register now to find out what NJ's marijuana legalization means for the building industry and also learn about workplace guidelines surrounding the coronavirus.

Seminar Topics:

- Handling pre-employment drug screenings
- Addressing cannabis use by employees in safety sensitive jobs
- Taking action when you suspect an employee is impaired
- Avoiding liability for disability discrimination for medical cannabis users
- What employers should know about COVID vaccines
- Employment and other COVID related employer-employee policies

This program is FREE for NJBA members!

Panelists:

- Jill R. Cohen, Eckert Seamans
- Adam Gersh, Flaster Greenberg P.C.
- Jemi Goulian Lucey, Greenbaum Rowe Smith & Davis LLP

Date & Time:

Tuesday, April 13, 2021

9:30 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.

Registration:

Complimentary registration for all NJBA Members

Non-member fee $25/person

Instructions for virtual participation to be sent day prior to webinar.

Continued

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Adam Gersh