

The State of Non-Competes in the Transportation Industry

March 1, 2023

Transportation Lawyers Association

Please join Flaster Greenberg shareholders Chris Merrick and Susie Cirilli for an engaging and interactive discussion of important recent developments in the area of employment law that impact all transportation providers. The focus of this presentation will be on non-compete agreements, including the recent proposed rulemaking from the FTC and key rulings in the litigation arena (including a nationwide non-compete class action against several major carriers).
