

Careers in Bankruptcy Panel

---

April 5, 2023

Temple University Beasley School of Law

Shareholder William Burnett, Temple Law alumnus (1995) and adjunct professor (2006-present), will participate in an annual panel discussion hosted by the Tax and Bankruptcy Law Society at Temple Law. The goal of this informative event is to introduce students to the world of bankruptcy law.

Bill, who was recommended for this opportunity by Temple Law faculty, will serve on the panel with Kevin Carey, retired bankruptcy judge and senior council at Hogan Lovells, a law firm with more than 50 offices and 2,500 attorneys around the globe, and Steven Walsh, an associate at Benesch Law, an AMLaw 200 business law firm with almost 300 attorneys and offices in the U.S. and Shanghai.

For an audience of more than 40 students and faculty, Bill will address his path through law school and into the field of bankruptcy law, and the internships and other opportunities he pursued to help build his career.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

William Burnett