

A Celebration of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging in the Legal Profession

November 13, 2024

Flaster Greenberg PC and Rutgers Law School

Flaster Greenberg PC is proud to sponsor the Rutgers Law School Minority Student Program's upcoming forum! This year's fall forum will include a celebration of diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging at a reception to honor affinity bar associations. The affinity bar associations of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware have supported Rutgers Law School students through the provision of scholarships, mentors, leadership development opportunities and other important resources. They have played a transformative role in improving the legal profession through their commitments.
