
Assets, Creditor Claims, and Debt Considerations

October 21, 2025

National Business Institute Pennsylvania Probate and Trust Administration

Course Description

This course will take participants through steps in probate administration, including information on creditor and debt issues, tax and more. Attendees will also get valuable insight on trust administration, including the handling of accounting, distributions and taxes. We invite you to attend the session listed below, presented by Flaster Greenberg Shareholder, Karen Conn Mavros.

Topic

Assets, Creditor Claims and Debt Considerations

- Marshalling Probate and Non-Probate Assets: Key Procedures
- Properly Ensure ALL Debt is Located and Handled
- Required Public Notices to Creditors
- Priority and Payment Determinations for Claims
- Contested Claims and Prescribed Claims
- Appropriately Dealing with Creditors
- Insolvent Estates
- Sale of Assets to Satisfy Creditors

Speaker

Karen Conn Mavros, Shareholder, Business & Corporate and Trusts & Estates Law

Date/Time

Tuesday, October 21, 2025 | 9:45 - 10:30 a.m.

Location

Virtual

Who Should Attend

This intermediate level online seminar is designed for professionals who want to be more effective in the probate and trust administration process, such as:

- Attorneys

Continued

- CPAs and Accountants
- Tax Professionals
- Financial Planners and Wealth Managers
- Trust Officers
- Paralegals

Credits

CLE/CPE Credits Available

Register

Click here to register now.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Karen Mavros