Program Overview:

Automotive and truck dealerships are often family owned businesses with different kinds of assets and members of multiple generations actively involved. This presents a particular set of challenges and opportunities for succession and estate planning.

This program will examine some of these challenges and opportunities with a view to keeping the dealership within the family while considering the interests of various members of the family unit. Topics covered will include:

- How is the dealership set up?
- Who owns the real estate?

Continued

- If my son and/or daughter are in the business, what do they deserve?
- What do I do for my children who are not in the business?
- How do I protect myself and my spouse when I retire?

Wine Tasting Presentation by Allied Beverage Group, L.L.C.

Allied Beverage Group ("Allied") is New Jersey's largest and most comprehensive wine and spirits distributor and ranks among the ten largest such distributors in the United States. Enjoy a presentation of various wines from around the world by an Allied connoisseur followed by a tasting.
