

April 2012 Rutgers Quarterly Business Outlook

April 25, 2012

Rutgers School of Business-Camden, Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey, Flaster Greenberg

Approximately 150 attendees gathered inside the Campus Center of Rutgers University–Camden for the 73rd iteration of the Rutgers Quarterly Business Outlook. Panelists for the April 25th economic forum consisted of experts in economy, banking and residential real estate, who discussed the current condition and potential forecast of their respective fields.

Pictured from left to right: Bruce Paparone, President, Bruce Paparone Inc. (residential real estate); Joel Naroff, President, Naroff Economic Advisors (economy); David Hanrahan, President and CEO, Capital Bank of New Jersey (banking); Kathleen Davis, Executive Vice President and COO, Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey; Jaishankar Ganesh, Dean, Rutgers School of Business–Camden; Frank Wisniewski, Shareholder and Chair, Real Estate and Land Use Department, Flaster Greenberg PC.

Flaster Greenberg, together with the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey, has been a sponsor of the Quarterly Business Outlook since 1999.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Frank Wisniewski