Flaster Greenberg is a proud sponsor of the Angel Venture Fair.

No longer is the United States alone in producing entrepreneurs. Countries such as China, India and Israel, to name a few, are developing world class companies. In order for the U.S., and in particular the Mid-Atlantic region of the country to grow economically we need to marry ideas with capital.

Since the advent of the Angel Venture Fair dozens of companies have raised millions of dollars through meeting investors at AVF or raising their visibility by participating in AVF. The Angel Venture Fair is the annual consortium of private angel investors across the mid-Atlantic region.

Time:

7:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Location:

Houston Hall at the University of Pennsylvania
