

From Mission to Money: Lessons in Good Governance for Nonprofit Boards

November 13, 2014

Flaster Greenberg, Nonprofit Center at LaSalle School of Business, United Way, Cipaldi Reynolds

Join us for Part 1 of a 3 Part Series. Flaster Greenberg along with our partners, Capaldi Reynolds & Pelosi, The Nonprofit Center at La Salle, and United Way invite you to attend a series of complimentary seminars provided to board members and senior executives at nonprofits.

Speakers will be discussing key topics of board governance including: financial management, board responsibility, compliance and funders guidance.

Who should attend:

The series is designed with leaders in mind. Enhancing and raising awareness and effectiveness in governance and stewardship responsibilities, both senior management and board of directors at leading Philadelphia area and South Jersey nonprofits will benefit from attending.

Speakers:

- Donna Buzby, CPA, RMA, Co-Managing Partner, Capaldi Reynolds & Pelosi, CPA
- Kevin Greenberg, Esq., Shareholder, Flaster Greenberg PC
- Laura Otten, Director, The Nonprofit Center at La Salle University's School of Business
- Karen Cleary, Senior Vice President of Finance and Operations United Way of Greater Philadelphia & Southern New Jersey

When:

November 13, 2014

5:30 - 7:30 pm with Cocktails & Appetizers Following

Cost:

FREE | Space is limited

Location:

The Westin Mt. Laurel
555 Fellowship Road
Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054

Continued

RSVP:

Call Capaldi Reynolds at 866-592-3070 for additional information.