

Lessons from the Trenches: What Trials Can Teach About Employment Counseling

April 21, 2015

Association of Corporate Counsel - Greater Philadelphia/Delaware Valley Chapter, 7th Annual In-House Counsel Conference

Nothing sharpens your sensitivity to labor and employment issues as much as having to defend your company's actions at trial. Our speakers will draw on their experiences in recent jury trials and injunctions, as well as published decisions, to provide valuable tips that in-house counsel should consider when giving advice on policy, restrictive covenants, discipline and discharge.

Speakers and Audience:

- Michael Homans, Shareholder, Labor & Employment and Litigation Groups, Flaster Greenberg PC
- Jonathan Rosan, General Counsel, Swift Capital

Michael and Jonathan are presenting to members of the Association of Corporate Counsel - Greater Philadelphia/Delaware Valley Chapter (formerly DELVACCA) during their 7th Annual In-House Counsel Conference.