

When the Whistle Blows: Best Practices for Handling Claims of Noncompliance and Retaliation

April 19, 2016

8th Annual In-House Counsel Conference, Association of Corporate Counsel, Greater Philadelphia Chapter

For more information, click here.

This session will provide a complete toolkit for handling formal and informal whistleblower claims, including a summary of key federal, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey whistleblower laws, a discussion of how these claims play out at trial, and pointed guidance on issues, actions, and tactics in-house counsel should consider when faced with a whistleblower claim. We'll discuss in-house counsel's role in the investigation, ethical responsibilities, protection of the whistleblower, and finally, whether an in-house lawyer can be a whistleblower.

Speakers:

- Michael D. Homans, Shareholder and Chair of the Litigation Department, Flaster Greenberg PC
- Eric A. Tilles, Deputy General Counsel, Labor & Employment & Regulatory & Mgr Ethics & Compliance, Arkema Inc.
