
Flaster Greenberg Welcomes Litigation Counsel Alexander Brown

Press Release

December 8, 2022

Litigation Attorney Alexander Brown has joined Flaster Greenberg as counsel in its Litigation Department. Brown will be headquartered in the firm's Philadelphia, PA, office where he focuses his practice on representing policy holders in disputes with their insurance companies.

Brown has broad-based experience in complex commercial matters in both state and federal courts and has experience handling all aspects of pre-trial litigation, including depositions, motion practice, and court hearings.

Prior to joining Flaster Greenberg, Brown was an attorney at an AmLaw 100 firm in Philadelphia where he defended insurance companies in high-stakes coverage and bad faith litigation. He now uses his in-depth knowledge of the insurance industry to represent policy holders in disputes with their insurance companies and to cut through the red tape and bureaucracy of the claims process. Brown has experience in virtually all aspects of insurance coverage, including CGL, property, inland marine, auto, products-completed operations, life insurance, and professional liability policies.

Brown has also defended claims for professional negligence and intentional misconduct, including claims for construction defects, broker negligence, and break of professional and fiduciary duties. In addition, he also has experience handling class actions and representing clients in matters involving television and film rights, music rights, publishing rights, and likeness rights.

Licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, Brown received his J.D. from Rutgers School of Law and a B.M. in music industry from Syracuse University. In 2022 he was selected as Volunteer Attorney of the Year by the Philadelphia Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts, and named to the "Super Lawyers Rising Star" and "Best Lawyers Ones to Watch" lists.
