

Philadelphia Bankruptcy Attorney William Burnett Quoted in Temple Law Alumni Magazine

April 2023

Philadelphia Bankruptcy Attorney & Flaster Greenberg Shareholder William Burnett was recently quoted in Esq., Temple Law School's magazine for alumni.

The article discusses significant steps forward for Temple Law including recognition for excellence in bankruptcy law, being named as the law school partner of the American Bankruptcy Law Journal (ABLJ), and details about an inaugural team competing in the Duberstein Bankruptcy Moot Court Competition in New York.

William Burnett '95 stated that "Temple has always fostered a unique learning environment for its students in bankruptcy law with its innovative curriculum and professors."

Burnett developed his specialized interest in bankruptcy as a Temple student and has been practicing it every since. He is also an adjunct professor at the law school for nearly 20 years.

Read the complete article here.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

William Burnett