

Flaster Greenberg Welcomes Gene Goroschko as First Chief Information Officer

Press Release

April 19, 2023

Flaster Greenberg is pleased to welcome Gene Goroschko as the firm's first chief information officer. In this newly created role, he will be responsible for strategic IT planning, security, and implementation. Gene joins and will manage the firm's existing IT team.

"We are very excited to have Gene join our firm, and his hiring comes after a long and exhaustive process aimed at finding the right candidate for this new role," said Jordan LaVine co-managing shareholder at Flaster Greenberg. "We have made significant improvements to our IT infrastructure in recent years and Gene will help direct and oversee our continued commitment to having state-of the art technology, which helps us serve our clients in the most efficient manner possible. Gene's proven track record as a successful IT executive will prove to be a tremendous asset to the firm."

Goroschko is a highly accomplished and innovative CIO who, through the course of his career, has partnered with stakeholders to foster consensus and build unified approaches to achieve shared business goals, overcome business challenges, minimize business risk, and position groups for sustainable growth.

Prior to joining Flaster Greenberg, Gene served as Vice President of Information Technology at a leading private equity firm that partners with veterinary practices. Before that, he was the CIO for a nationally recognized development and management partner for GI-focused ambulatory surgery centers.

Gene earned his Bachelor of Science in Information Technology from Capella University and in 2016, was certified as a HIPAA Privacy Security Expert (CHPSE).

Flaster Greenberg, a midsize business law firm with offices throughout the Mid-Atlantic and in Florida, has been providing legal services to publicly traded corporations, privately held and family owned businesses, entrepreneurs, and individuals for 50 years. With locations in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Delaware, and Florida, Flaster Greenberg serves a broad range of clients in dozens of industries and practice areas including aviation law, bankruptcy, business & corporate, cannabis, commercial litigation, elder & disability law, environmental, family law, gaming, healthcare, insurance recovery, intellectual property, labor and employment, real estate, taxation and trusts and estates.
