
Flaster Greenberg Aviation & Energy Law Attorney Participates in 2023 Airports Council International - North America Conference

Press Release

May 12, 2023

Flaster Greenberg Aviation & Energy Law Attorney Daniel B. Markind is participating in an engaging panel discussion at the Airports Council International - North America (ACI-NA) 2023 Legal Affairs Spring Conference in Aventura, Florida on Wednesday, May 24, 2023.

The Spring Conference brings together airport legal professionals and consultants to identify and discuss the most pressing legal developments and issues associated with the airport industry. Markind will participate in a session titled “Electricity, Hydrogen and Other New Sources of Energy,” which will assess how the move to cleaner energy is impacting infrastructure, business models, and legal arrangements at airports. The panelists will answer questions such as How can airports make the most of these coming changes? Where are the legal land minds? What is the role of the airport attorney?

Taking the national stage with Markind are William Wright from Edmonton Regional Airports Authority, Sarah Keane from Kaplan, Kirsch & Rockwell, and Peter Pierotti from the City of Albuquerque Aviation Department.

ACI-NA is the voice of North American airports representing local, regional, and state governing bodies that own and operate commercial airports in the United States and Canada. ACI-NA is the largest of the five worldwide regions of the Airports Council International (ACI). Members represent more than 300 airports operating in the United States and Canada and nearly 400 aviation-related businesses.

Flaster Greenberg Shareholder Daniel Markind has over 35 years of experience as an airport, real estate, energy, and corporate transactional attorney. During that time, he has served as inside and outside counsel to airports across the nation and combines that knowledge with his sub-specialty in energy law
