

Flaster Greenberg Counsel Discusses Attorney Fee Structures on Ringler Radio

Press Release

August 11, 2023

Listen to podcast here.

When a general advice legal memorandum, also known as a GLAM, was issued in December addressing attorney fee structures, the industry took a collective gasp. It took some deep research to unravel the meaning of the GLAM, but our conversation with legal tax expert, Matt Meltzer from the law firm of Flaster Greenberg, helps sort it all out.

About Ringler Radio

Stay current with the latest news on the settlement industry, nationwide litigation, trends in the legal and insurance industries and everything in-between with Ringler Radio™, the award-winning podcast series from Ringler. Join our host Matt Ross as he welcomes accomplished professionals and discusses topics ranging from current noteworthy cases, Medicare Set-Asides, workers' compensation, 468B trusts, age ratings, long-term disabilities, mediation, structuring settlements in large and small litigation and much more.

Ringler, the nation's largest structured settlement company, has been producing Ringler Radio since 2005. More than a decade of high-value production and award-winning content have pushed the monthly distribution of Ringler Radio to more than 2.5 million listeners. It's all part of Ringler's unwavering commitment to leading the settlement planning industry with best-practice innovation, technology and education.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Matthew Meltzer