Philadelphia, PA

Flaster Greenberg shareholders Lynda L. Calderone and Jordan A. LaVine have been named as "Leaders in Their Field," in the field of intellectual property, in the Chambers USA 2010 Directory, published by Chambers & Partners, a United Kingdom-based legal publisher. Chambers produces an array of annual directories in which lawyers, legal practice groups and law firms from around the world are ranked, based on exhaustive peer review and client feedback.

Lynda L. Calderone is a shareholder in the firm's Intellectual Property group. She concentrates her practice in the chemical, chemical engineering, mechanical and business method areas, and serves a wide range of clients in U.S. and foreign patent prosecution and litigation, client counseling, opinions of counsel, drafting and negotiation of IP-related agreements, and IP due diligence. Her practice focuses on inventions in the polymer, elastomer, medical device, consumer product, nanotechnology and semiconductor industries.

Jordan A. LaVine is the head of the Trademark and Copyright section of the Intellectual Property group. He concentrates his practice on trademark, copyright and unfair competition strategic counseling, litigation, licensing, and prosecution matters. He represents public and private companies in such industries as media and publishing, technology and telecommunications, consumer products and services, pharmaceuticals, health care, financial services, automotive, automotive chemicals and accessories, retail and commercial services, apparel, jewelry, software, and food products.
