

Flaster Greenberg PC Welcomes New Litigator

Press Release

November 4, 2009

Cherry Hill, NJ

Elisa Nicole Bramble has joined the Cherry Hill office of Flaster Greenberg as an associate attorney in the Litigation Department. Ms. Bramble maintains a general litigation practice.

Prior to joining Flaster Greenberg, Ms. Bramble was a litigation associate at Blank Rome LLP in Philadelphia. She previously was a summer associate at Venable LLP in Baltimore, Maryland. While a law student, she worked as a summer law clerk in the Baltimore City law department. In 2008, Ms. Bramble was a recipient of the First Judicial District of Pennsylvania's Pro Bono Award.

Ms. Bramble received a B.A. in Political Science in 2005 from Yale University, and earned her J.D. in 2008 from the University of Virginia School of Law. While at the University of Virginia, she was an editorial board member of the Virginal Journal of Law & Technology, and was a semifinalist in the National Black Law Students Association's regional mock trial competition. She is admitted to practice in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.
