
Anthony Gruzdis, Business and Corporate Law Attorney, Earns CIPP/US Certification

December 9, 2025

Flaster Greenberg is pleased to announce that Anthony Gruzdis, CIPP/US, business and corporate law attorney, recently earned the Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States (CIPP/US) certification.

This prestigious credential, awarded by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP), reinforces Gruzdis' commitment to advancing his knowledge in data privacy and protection, as well as his dedication to helping businesses navigate the increasingly complex landscape of privacy laws and regulations.

The CIPP/US certification is widely recognized as the gold standard in privacy certification, focusing on U.S. privacy laws, regulations, and frameworks, including comprehensive state regimes such as the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), federal statutes like the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), and Federal Trade Commission (FTC) guidelines and enforcement actions. By earning this certification, Gruzdis has demonstrated his proficiency in understanding and applying privacy laws that impact businesses, ranging from startups to global corporations.

"I am excited to have earned the CIPP/US certification," said Gruzdis. "Data privacy is more critical than ever, and its vital for businesses to stay ahead of evolving regulations to protect both their operations and their customers."

Gruzdis is a member of the firms Business & Corporate Law Department and Artificial Intelligence, Cybersecurity, and Data Privacy Practice Group. He focuses his practice on business and corporate transactions. This includes mergers and acquisitions, venture capital financing, corporate reorganizations, business formation and governance, succession planning, contract review and drafting, and other general business representation.

Additionally, Gruzdis has experience with minority- and women-owned business registrations, trademark registration and maintenance, franchise formation and regulation, state and federal business litigation, Corporate Transparency Act compliance, and representing commercial lenders.
