

Frank Riesenburger elected to National Board of Directors of Elwyn, Inc.

Press Release

July 6, 2009

Cherry Hill, NJ

Franklin J. Riesenburger, Flaster Greenberg shareholder and head of the firm's Environmental Department, has been elected to the national board of directors of Elwyn, Inc., for a three-year term. Previously, Mr. Riesenburger served for 12 years on the board of directors of Elwyn, New Jersey.

A highly regarded environmental law attorney, Mr. Riesenburger is a former adjunct professor of environmental law at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey. He writes and lectures frequently on topics involving environmental litigation and regulation. Mr. Riesenburger received his J.D. in 1971 from the University of Chicago, and is a 1968 cum laude graduate of American University.

Founded in 1852, Elwyn, Inc. is a non-profit organization providing services to people of all ages with special needs. Elwyn operates sites across the United States, including in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and California. It has been recognized nationally and internationally for expertise in the education and care of individuals with special challenges and disadvantages.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Franklin Riesenburger