

Rutgers Quarterly Business Outlook: Photo Caption and Audio

Press Release

April 21, 2009

Cherry Hill, NJ

On Tuesday, April 21, 2009, Rutgers University School of Business at Camden held its Quarterly Business Outlook at the Crowne Plaza Hotel. Participating panel members and moderators are (from left): Steven DiBartolo, vice president, Hill International; Robert Minniti, president, SJ Hot Chefs and chef/owner of Bacio Italian Cuisine ; Raymond Solomon, acting executive dean of Rutgers School of Business-Camden; Michael Carbone, metro president/metro Philadelphia Market, TD Bank; Dr. Joel Naroff, chief economist, TD Bank, J. Philip Kirchner, Esq., shareholder of Flaster Greenberg P.C., which sponsors the event; and Debra DiLorenzo, president of the Chamber of Commerce of Southern New Jersey. Click here to listen to a podcast of the Panel discussion and outlook for South Jersey.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

J. Philip Kirchner