
Industry Leaders Assess Our Region's Economy at July 19th Rutgers Quarterly Business Outlook

Press Release

July 11, 2011
Cherry Hill, NJ

Leaders in some of South Jersey's key industry sectors will convene on July 19th to assess the current status of our region and its businesses. Panelists at the Rutgers-Camden Quarterly Business Outlook will reflect on how the second quarter of 2011 performed, and share their projections for the remainder of the year.

Now in its 12th year, the Rutgers-Camden Quarterly Business Outlook, is sponsored by the Rutgers University School of Business-Camden, and supported by Flaster Greenberg PC and the Chamber of Commerce of Southern New Jersey. Each event attracts hundreds from around the area, including the region's entrepreneurs, business owners and professionals, for its reputable panelists and their insightful evaluations.

Held on Tuesday, July 19, 7:45 a.m., at the Riverside Ballroom of the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Cherry Hill, the event will be moderated by Jaishankar Ganesh, Dean, Rutgers School of Business–Camden. The introduction will be presented by Tami Steinberg, Esq., Chair of the Gaming Law Practice at Flaster Greenberg.

July's panelists include: Luke Tilley, Regional Economic Advisor, Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia; Jeffrey Hartman, President and CEO, Mohegan Sun; Anthony Perno III, CEO, Cooper's Ferry Development Association.

Register by July 15th by contacting the Chamber of Commerce of Southern New Jersey at (856) 424-7776, or by registering online at <https://www.chambersnj.com>. The breakfast event is free of charge and open to the public; however, advance registration is required.

For the results of previous Rutgers-Camden Quarterly Business Outlook conferences, visit <http://www.camden.rutgers.edu>.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Tami Bogutz Steinberg