

Flaster Greenberg's Mike Simon Among 14 in NJ Named to Who's Who

Press Release

July 11, 2011

Trenton, NJ

Michael S. Simon, a shareholder in the Trenton office of Flaster Greenberg PC, has been named in the 2011 *Who's Who Legal, the International Who's Who of Business Lawyers, in the category of construction law. He was one of only 14 attorneys in New Jersey to have been listed.

Mr. Simon, a nationally recognized construction attorney, focuses his legal practice on construction law and claims, and all phases of alternative dispute resolution procedures. A Fellow in both the American College of Construction Lawyers and the American Institute of Constructors, he represents businesses and individuals involved in the construction industry, including specialty manufacturers and suppliers, subcontractors, prime and general contractors, sureties, design professionals, and private and public owners.

He serves on the select construction complex cases panel for the American Arbitration Association, and is a Charter Member and Master of the Justice Marie L. Garibaldi Inn of Court for Alternative Dispute Resolution.
