Cherry Hill, NJ

Stephen M. Greenberg, President of Flaster Greenberg PC and Chair of the firm's Corporate and Healthcare Practice Groups, has been tapped by the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce to participate in their December 6th Regional Spotlight Series event, "Successful Healthcare Partnerships."

The program is part of a four-part series that highlights Greater Philadelphia's leading economic drivers and explores how they are creating opportunities for regional collaboration and growth now and in the future. The panel will consist of leading healthcare professionals exploring the successful partnerships between doctors and hospitals that are improving the wellbeing of our citizens and driving the regional economy. The intended result of these collaborations is improved patient care, while staying mutually committed to health and medical research in the region.

Greenberg concentrates his practice in healthcare law, tax and corporate legal services, including all types of business transactions, mergers and acquisitions. He has particular experience in mergers and acquisitions of healthcare providers and physician practice groups; tax structuring of business transactions and corporate reorganizations; and tax planning for individuals, estates and trusts. His special understanding of the healthcare industry encompasses regulatory law and managed care issues, formation of practice entities, antitrust issues surrounding physician groups, structuring compensation arrangements and buy-ins and buy-outs, and designing qualified retirement plans for medical practices.
