

Rutgers Quarterly Business Outlook Kicks Off 13th Year with Green Energy Discussion

Press Release

January 20, 2012

Cherry Hill, NJ

The 2012 Rutgers Quarterly Business Outlook will kick off the year at a new location and with a new topic. In the spotlight: green energy and its economic impact on our region and its businesses. Several of South Jersey's leaders in the green energy sector will join together at Rutgers-Camden Campus on January 26th for this special topic.

Now in our 13th year of sponsorship, the Quarterly Business Outlook, presented by Rutgers University School of Business-Camden, and supported by Flaster Greenberg PC and the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey, continues to attract hundreds of business leaders and professionals for its reputable panelists and their insightful evaluations.

Beginning at 7:45 a.m. on Thursday, January 26th, the event will be moderated by Dr. Richard A. Michelfelder, Clinical Associate Professor, Rutgers School of Business-Camden. The introduction will be presented by Peter R. Spigel, Managing Shareholder and Chief Operating Officer of Flaster Greenberg. Our green energy panelists include: Ralph Izzo, Ph.D., Chair, President and CEO, Public Service Enterprise Group Inc. (PSEG); Mitchell Cohen, Counsel and Co-chair, Alternative & Renewable Energy Industry Group, Flaster Greenberg PC; and Michael Flett, CEO and President, Flett Exchange LLC.

Register by January 23rd by contacting the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey at (856) 424-7776, or by registering online at <https://www.chambersnj.com>. The event will be held in the Campus Center at Rutgers-Camden, located on Third Street, between Cooper Street and the Benjamin Franklin Bridge. Free and accessible parking will be available. The breakfast event is free of charge and open to the public; however, advance registration is required.
