Three Flaster Greenberg Attorneys to Present at Atlantic Builders Convention

March 23, 2012
Cherry Hill, NJ

Three Flaster Greenberg attorneys have been tapped as speakers and to moderate a variety of educational seminars planned for the 63rd Annual Atlantic Builders Convention. The March 28-30 convention, taking place at the Atlantic City Convention Center, will offer a selection of 23 educational seminars geared toward providing powerful information to the attendees, to help guide them in their business decisions and planning.

Of the 23 courses, four will feature a Flaster Greenberg attorney. Shareholders Frank Riesenburger, chair of the Environmental Practice and co-chair of the Alternative and Renewable Industry Group, Marty Judge, member of the firms Environmental Practice, and Of Counsel Robert Washburn, member of the firms Real Estate Practice, will each contribute their knowledge in relation to their panels subject matter. Their respective programs, including dates and times, are noted below:

Wednesday, March 28, 2012:

- 9:00 a.m. 10:30 a.m., Frank Riesenburger, ABC Seminar: The New Regulatory Framework for Site Remediation in New Jersey, 4th floor
- 11:00 a.m. 12:30 p.m., Marty Judge, ABC Seminar: Annual Environmental Review, 4th floor

Thursday, March 29, 2012:

- 11:00 a.m. 12:30 p.m., Robert Washburn, Legal Trends II Environmental Law, 4th floor

During the convention, attendees can visit Flaster Greenbergs Exhibit Table at Booth # 1419, on the Exhibit Show Floor.

Riesenburger advises clients on matters involving environmental litigation and regulation. He is a former adjunct professor of environmental law at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey and lectures frequently on topics including environmental contamination, cost recovery, environmental remediation cost allocation, complex litigation and risk assessment in New Jersey, and issues facing parties and realtors in industrial, commercial and residential sales.

Judge, a former Deputy Attorney General for the State of New Jersey, who represented the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, now focuses his practice on environmental litigation, compliance and counseling.

Washburn is Of Counsel to the firm and a Professor of Law at Rutgers-Camden Law School. His practice involves general real estate and development matters including utilities, land use, real estate contracts and financing, homeowners association and condominium law, environmental law, land use litigation, legislation and ordinance drafting and review and appearances before municipal bodies and administrative agencies. He serves as Counsel to both the New Jersey Builders Association and the Builders League of South Jersey.
