

March 2012 Regional Economic Perspective

Video Recap

April 11, 2012

In case you missed it, the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey held its first Regional Economic Perspective event on Friday, March 30th at the Mansion on Main Street in Voorhees, New Jersey. The event featured a high level panel of seven speakers and was attended by over 150 chamber members.

Alan Zuckerman, shareholder in the Taxation Practice Group at Flaster Greenberg PC, moderated the panel that provided members with an update on business attraction, retention and expansion efforts in Atlantic, Burlington, Camden, Cape May, Cumberland and Gloucester counties.
