
Attorney Adam Gersh Elected to Shareholder at Flaster Greenberg PC

Press Release

January 1, 2013

The shareholders of Flaster Greenberg PC are pleased to announce the election of Adam E. Gersh to shareholder.

Gersh is a member of Flaster Greenberg's Litigation and Labor and Employment Practice Groups. He focuses his practice on the representation of businesses in employment and complex business disputes in the federal and state courts of New Jersey and Pennsylvania and before federal and state administrative agencies.

"It is with great pleasure that we announce the election of Adam Gersh to shareholder," said Peter Spigel, Managing Partner at Flaster Greenberg. "Over the last eight years, Adam has demonstrated outstanding leadership, exceptional knowledge and expertise in the law, and a firm commitment to providing excellent client service. His promotion is a clear indication of both the tremendous growth and promising future of the firm."

Since joining the firm in 2004, Gersh was named a New Jersey "Rising Star" by New Jersey Super Lawyers Magazine, made the SJ Magazine "Top Attorney List," was named an "Awesome Attorney" by South Jersey Magazine, and was given the prestigious "Neighbor's Choice Attorney" recognition by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

An active leader in the community, Gersh is a Camden County Bar Association trustee and the former co-chairman of the Camden County Bar Association's Continuing Legal Education Committee.

Gersh graduated from Rutgers University School of Law – Camden, with high honors in 2004. While in law school, he was a Dean's Merit Scholar and the recipient of the Alfred Finn Award for Professional Ethics and 1st year writing award. He obtained his B.A. in English from Franklin & Marshall College in 1997. Prior to his legal career, Gersh wrote award-winning advertisements for Fortune 500 clients in the pharmaceutical industry.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Adam Gersh