Robert Washburn to Present at NAHB Workshop

Press Release

March 8, 2013
Cherry Hill, NJ

Robert M. Washburn, Of Counsel to Flaster Greenberg PC, General Counsel to the New Jersey Builders Association and a Professor of Law at the Rutgers-Camden School of Law, has been tapped by the National Association of Home Builders to present at the upcoming LANDS Roundtable and Workshop.

This year's roundtable will feature a robust educational experience specifically designed to facilitate discussion and development of litigation experiences and strategies. This year's topics include: Redevelopment & Infill — Sea Change; Use of Technology in Land Use Hearings; Penn Central at Quarter Century Mark; New Jersey's Regulatory Waiver Program; and Ethics.

This two-day workshop will attract attorneys active in representing builders, property owners and home building associations, and who dedicate a substantial portion of their practice to land use and environmental issues.

The workshop will take place on April 5-6, 2013 at George Mason University Law School in Arlington, Virginia.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Robert Washburn