
Flaster Greenberg to be Presenting Sponsor of Pennsylvania Gaming Congress, April 15-16, 2013

Press Release

March 18, 2013
Philadelphia, PA

Flaster Greenberg PC, one of the Delaware Valley's leading law firms, will be the presenting sponsor of the 8th Pennsylvania Gaming Congress, which will take place April 15-16, 2013, at the Loews Philadelphia Hotel.

Flaster Greenberg PC is a full-service, commercial business law firm serving clients across a broad range of industries in the public, private, government and nonprofit sectors. With offices in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and New York, they are strategically located within the mid-Atlantic corridor close to the hubs of business, industry and government. Their clients include individuals as well as companies in all stages of growth and development, from established entrepreneurs and family-held businesses to start-ups and Fortune 500 corporations.

"We are excited to be the presenting sponsor of the Pennsylvania Gaming Congress this year," said Tami Bogutz Steinberg, shareholder and member of the Gaming Industry Group at Flaster Greenberg PC. "The conference offers a terrific opportunity for the gaming industry to come together. With six parties currently vying for the remaining Philadelphia license, it is an exciting time for both the industry and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

Pennsylvania has become the second-highest-grossing commercial casino jurisdiction in the US in just six years. As such, it has attracted widespread attention both inside and outside of the gaming industry. Amid this growth and change, hundreds of gaming executives, elected officials, regulators, business leaders, attorneys, slot manufacturers, vendors, architects and other gaming-related professionals will convene for the 8th Pennsylvania Gaming Congress to discuss the opportunities and challenges ahead.

Taking place at the magnificent Loews Philadelphia Hotel, the Pennsylvania Gaming Congress will provide attendees with valuable insight and education by those most knowledgeable about this high-growth industry -- as well as outstanding opportunities for networking, professional development and business-to-business discussions.

The two-day event begins on April 15th with an evening cocktail reception on the 33rd floor of the hotel offering breathtaking views of the city below. The following day delivers a full-day of in-depth seminars dedicated to presenting multiple viewpoints, ideas and concerns, along with several networking opportunities. Session topics include:

- All Busy on the Western Front
- The View from Wall Street
- Legislative and Regulatory Update

Continued

- No. 2 in the USA ... Now What?
- The Philadelphia Story: The Applicants Present their Plans

The Pennsylvania Gaming Congress is solely owned and produced by Spectrum Gaming Group and is the premier forum for professionals following the state's rapidly expanding gaming industry.

For more information on the 8th Pennsylvania Gaming Congress, or to register, click here.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Tami Steinberg