

Tami Bogutz Steinberg Joins CCSNJ Board of Directors

Press Release

January 16, 2014

Cherry Hill, NJ

Tami Bogutz Steinberg, Shareholder at Flaster Greenberg, has joined the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey (CCSNJ) effective January 1, 2014.

CCSNJ is the region's largest, most active, and influential business organization. CCSNJ started in 1873 as the Camden Board of Trade and has grown to represent the seven counties of Southern New Jersey, Greater Philadelphia and Northern Delaware.

Steinberg is a seasoned corporate attorney who represents principally entrepreneurs and closely held businesses, assisting companies across a wide range of industries, and with multiple diverse legal issues. Her practice emphasizes mergers and acquisitions, financings, joint ventures, partnership and shareholder transactions, dispute resolutions, corporate governance and contracting, and private placements. She frequently functions as outside general counsel and provides legal advice, assistance and oversight regarding matters that include corporate, tax, labor, intellectual property, real estate and litigation. Steinberg also represents operators and developers of gaming facilities.

ATTORNEYS MENTIONED

Tami Bogutz Steinberg